

Habakkuk Lecture 3 Scriptures

Hebrews 12:5-6

“My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, Nor faint when you are punished by Him; For whom the Lord loves, He disciplines, And He punishes every son whom He accepts.”

Habakkuk 3:2

Lord, I have heard the report about You, and I was afraid.
Lord, revive Your work in the midst of the years, In the midst of the years make it known. In anger remember mercy.

Isaiah 44:3

For I will pour water on the thirsty land and streams on the dry ground; I will pour out My Spirit on your offspring, and My blessing on your descendants;

Isaiah 57:15

For this is what the high and exalted One who lives forever, whose name is Holy, says:

“I dwell in a high and holy place, and also with the contrite and lowly of spirit in order to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.

Psalm 46:10

Be still and know that I am God.

Habakkuk 3:16

I heard, and my inner parts trembled; at the sound, my lips quivered.
Decay enters my bones, and in my place I tremble; Because I must wait quietly for the day of distress, For the people to arise who will attack us.

Genesis 15:4

Then behold, the word of the Lord came to him, saying, “This man will not be your heir; but one who will come from your own body shall be your heir.”

Genesis 15:7

And He said to him, “I am the Lord who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess it.” But he said, “Lord God, how may I know that I will possess it?” So He said to him, “Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.” Then he brought all these to Him and cut them in two, and laid each half opposite the other; but he did not cut the birds. And birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

Genesis 15:12-13

Now when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, terror and great darkness fell upon him. Then God said to Abram, “Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, where they will be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years.

Genesis 15:14-18

But I will also judge the nation whom they will serve, and afterward they will come out with many possessions. As for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age. Then in the fourth generation they will return here, for the wrongdoing of the Amorite is not yet complete.”

Now it came about, when the sun had set, that it was very dark, and behold, a smoking oven and a flaming torch appeared which passed between these pieces. On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying,

Habakkuk 3:3

God comes from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. His splendor covers the heavens, and the earth is full of His praise.

Habakkuk 3:4-5

His radiance is like the sunlight; He has rays flashing from His hand, and the hiding of His might is there. Before Him goes plague, and plague comes forth after Him.

Exodus 14:13-14

But Moses said to the people, “Do not fear! Stand by and see the salvation of the Lord, which He will perform for you today; for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will never see them again, ever. The Lord will fight for you, while you keep silent.”

Exodus 14:15-16

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the sons of Israel to go forward. As for you, lift up your staff and reach out with your hand over the sea and divide it, and the sons of Israel shall go through the midst of the sea on dry land.

Exodus 14:19-20

Then the angel of God, who had been going before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them. So it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud along with the darkness, yet it gave light at night. Therefore, the one did not approach the other all night.

Exodus 14:26-28

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Reach out with your hand over the sea so that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots and their horsemen.” So Moses reached out with his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal state at daybreak, while the Egyptians were fleeing right into it; then the Lord overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, Pharaoh’s entire army that had gone into the sea after them; not even one of them remained.
