

Finish the Race. Acts 20:17–38

10/4/26

1. Finish with humility

Acts 20:17–19

From Miletus, Paul sent to Ephesus for the elders of the church. When they arrived, he said to them: “You know how I lived the whole time I was with you, from the first day I came into the province of Asia. I served the Lord with great humility and with tears and in the midst of severe testing by the plots of my Jewish opponents.

Remember how I lived.

I humbled myself.

I cried.

I suffered.

And I kept serving.

2. Finish by giving people the whole truth

Acts 20:20–21

You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house. I have declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus.

Repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ.

Turn from sin. Turn toward God. Trust Jesus.

Do I give people Jesus? Have I done all God asked me to do, which is to shine Jesus?

3. Finish the assignment God gave you

Acts 20:22–24

“And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me. However, I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God’s grace.

Will I finish what Jesus gave me to do?

He's going to ask what you did with the baton He put in your hand.

But you do need to be faithful with the thing Jesus has given you.

4. Guard what God has entrusted to you

Acts 20:25–31

Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom will ever see me again. Therefore, I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of any of you. For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God. Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood. I know that after I leave, savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock. Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples after them. So be on your guard! Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears.

Proverbs 4:23: Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.

We love people deeply while guarding truth carefully.

5. Entrust what you cannot control to God

Acts 20:32

Now I commit you to God and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

He entrusts them to God.

God loves the people we love even more than we do.

Acts 20:33–35

I have not coveted anyone's silver or gold or clothing. You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions. In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'

Remember to give yourselves away.

Acts 20:36–38

When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down with all of them and prayed. They all wept as they embraced him and kissed him. What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

What condition will the baton be in when we hand it over?

What are you doing with what has been entrusted to you?

There is still a race left to run.

So run your race. Love people deeply. Tell them the whole truth.

Guard what Jesus purchased with His blood. Give generously. Entrust what you cannot control to God.

And when your portion of the race is finished, hand the baton to the next generation.

Lord, by Your grace, I finished what You gave me to do.
